Prince George County Business Roundtable, Class of 2019

On February 27, 2019, Prince George County will host the first of six Business Roundtable meetings for the Class of 2019, at the Prince George Library. The Roundtable works to open the lines of communication between businesses and County Government. The group gathers every-other month for either a breakfast or lunch meeting, with an alumni dinner held in September.

If you would like to be considered for the Prince George Business Roundtable for 2019, or for future classes, please contact Mr. Jeff Stoke, Deputy County Administrator, at 804-722-8612 or email jstoke@princegeorgecountyva.gov.

Prince George County Youth Workforce Academy

Prince George County Schools, Prince George County Government, and Prince George Promise are again partnering to offer the Prince George Youth Workforce Academy for 2019. The program is modeled on the J.O.B.S. Program which had previously been offered to local youth. Students from N.B. Clements Junior High School are selected via an application process. Through after-school classes and a summer internship, students will learn and practice basic workplace skills to prepare them for future employment.

Local businesses are encouraged to participate in mock interviews and meet the students prior to selecting a summer intern. If you are interested, please contact Mrs. Sharon Jadrnak, Coordinator, at 804-732-7528 or smjadrnak@yahoo.com.

We hope you will consider this program as an investment in our students and your future workforce.

Prince George Citizens' Academy

Prince George County will be recruiting county citizens for the 2019 Citizens' Academy. This is a free course providing an inside look at the government system of Prince George County, Virginia. During each class, various Directors will give an overview of their respective departments. Class locations will vary throughout the semester to give students a broad view of County operations and a chance to visit different facilities.

Registration is limited to 25 participants. Registration will begin in March and run through mid-May. Classes are anticipated to begin the first Thursday in June and run through the fall. Members of the public who wish to attend should contact County Administration at (804) 722-8600 or email jstoke@princegeorgecountyva.gov.

This year, the USSSA Early Bird Tournament will be the first baseball tournament of the season. Teams and their families will be staying, playing, and eating in the County, March 2 & 3. Let's give them a warm welcome!
